

SOMMELIER SELECTION OF THE 70s

It's a new year at Rococo Steak and we need to make room for the exciting new wines coming to our cellar. That means we get to feature special pricing on some of our most prized bottles from the 70's. So enjoy! After all, these fine wines were made to be experienced, not to sit on a shelf.

PIEDMONT'S BEST

As one of the most heralded wineries in the world, Gaja boasts of superb wines that are both rare and highly coveted.

1978 GAJA BARBERESCO $969/$546

This Italian beauty has aged remarkably well. Its subtle bouquet whispers of dark cherry, plums and spice with earthy undertones of mushroom and forest floor.

THE KINGS OF BORDEAUX

Chateau Mouton Rothschild, Chateau Latour and Chateau Haut-Brion are 3 of the 5 heralded First Growths of the Left Bank of Bordeaux. Examples of pure elegance and perfection. Very rarely is someone able to taste these but you have the chance.

1977 CHATEAU MOUTON ROTHSCHILD $827/$454

Although not among the choicest of vintages, this '77 still holds its own as testament to excellent winemaking. Notes of cassis, graphite and stewed fruits are followed by flavors of stewed blackberries and plums.

1979 CHATEAU MOUTON ROTHSCHILD $661/$399

Aging better than most of us, this bottle delights with its dark cherry, tobacco and flint aroma with a kiss of currant, cranberry and dried fruits.

1977 CHATEAU HAUT-BRION $639/$447

Showcasing dried rose, eucalyptus and tobacco aromatics, the '77 hits your palate with dried red fruits, black cherry and a touch of vanilla. While not the most powerful vintage, this wine still packs a punch.

1975 CHATEAU LATOUR $982/$547

Aroma of truffles, pepper and mushroom with tastes of dried cherry, currant and leather indicates that this wine still holds strong. A good vintage is evident in this wine, and the '75 is full of fun.

GRAND PUY DUCASSE, AN EXCEPTIONAL OFFERING

Grand Puy Ducasse is a 5th Growth producer with a reputation for presenting stellar wines that show structure, balance and sophistication.

1978 CHATEAU GRAND PUY DUCASSE $186/$104

This wine presents surprisingly well, featuring subtle hints of cherry and smokiness with a smooth and elegant finish. For the price, it's an incredible find.

VEGA SICILIA, A LEGEND IN WINE MAKING

Vega Sicilia is consistently ranked as one of the top wineries in the world, and with wines that age so impeccably well, they're among the most widely sought after by enthusiasts.

1973 VEGA SICILIA 'UNICO' RIBERA DEL DUERO $986/$690

This wine holds the secret to youthfulness. Fruity notes of cherry pie and raspberry romp around the nose and kirsch, earth and tobacco play on the palate. The '73 shines.

1978 VEGA SICILIA 'VALBUENA' RIBERA DEL DUERO $417/$232

Usually considered Unico's younger brother, this vintage of Valbuena is practically its twin. A superb example of why Vega Sicilia is among the most celebrated winemakers, dark cherry and dried raspberry aroma makes way for a taste of earth, spice and mint.
