

OLD FRIENDS AND NEW FRIENDS AT ROCOCO STEAK

We are always excited to open amazing wine. Since we think that you feel the same way, we are giving our guests the opportunity to try some of the rarest, most sought-after gems in our cellar. If you like your wines – old or new – we promise we have something for everyone.

OLD FRIENDS

The wines below are from some of the most respected wineries in the world. We have discounted our prices so that we can share some of the older gems in our cellar.

1977 Château Mouton Rothschild, Bordeaux Blend, Pauillac.....	400
1979 Château Mouton Rothschild, Bordeaux Blend, Pauillac.....	400
1977 Château Haut-Brion, Bordeaux Blend, Pessac-Leognan.....	400
1980 Château Haut-Brion, Bordeaux Blend, Pessac-Leognan.....	400
1965 Vega Sicilia 'Unico', Tempranillo, Ribera del Duero.....	600
1967 Vega Sicilia 'Unico', Tempranillo, Ribera del Duero.....	600

NEW CULT FRIENDS

Sometimes our days are filled with tasting rare and unique wines that are not widely available. We know; it's a tough life. One of the true joys is to share the new wines with our guests. The wines below are some of our favorites but they won't be around for long.

2014 Lemelson 'Stermer Vineyard', Pinot Noir, Yamhill-Carlton, Oregon.....	95
One of the things we love about Oregon wines is the family camaraderie that shows through in each bottle produced. This Lemelson Pinot Noir is truly special. It boasts a beautifully rich and velvety texture on the mouth followed by a deep raspberry and blackberry flavor. You may never drink Pinot Noir from anywhere but Oregon from now on.
2014 Cornerstone Cellars, Cabernet Sauvignon, Calistoga, California.....	75
The winemaking team of Charles Thomas and Kari Auringer have made wines for acclaimed wineries such as Opus One, Cardinale, Verite, Quintessa, Scarecrow and others with their prices averaging more than $300 per bottle. Luckily, the winemakers brought their expertise without the price tag.
2014 Arkenstone 'NVD', Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa Valley.....	98
Sam Kaplan is quickly establishing himself as one of California's elite winemakers.
2014 I. Brand 'Monte Bello Road', Cabernet Sauvignon, Santa Cruz Mountains, California.....	125
A Cabernet that is from California's -- if not the world's -- most famous vineyards. Very few can get their hands on fruit from the Monte Bello Vineyard. This wine truly over-delivers, especially for the price.
2014 Staglin 'Salus', Cabernet Sauvignon, Rutherford.....	150
When you have Fredrik Johansson, Michel Rolland, David Abreu and then add Andre Tchelistcheff's wisdom to Staglin, you have the "Super Team" of wine.
2014 Italics 'Estate', Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa Valley, California.....	154
Winemaker Steve Reynolds has done a remarkable job with this up-and-coming Cabernet from Coombsville. It will soon be sought-after by wine collectors everywhere.
2013 Morlet 'Coeur de Vallée', Cabernet Sauvignon, Beckstoffer To Kolan, California.....	276
Luc Morlet is by-far one of the most respected winemakers in all the world. He has worked with the likes of Michel Rolland, John Kongsgaard and Helen Turley. His wine is truly amazing and is increasingly difficult to find.
